Most Valuable Partnership Grants

Ocoee, Florida – The City of Ocoee will award $10,000 in matching grants for neighborhood improvement projects as part of its Most Valuable Partnership (MVP) Matching Grant Program. Ocoee homeowner associations, civic clubs and faith-based organizations are eligible to apply. The maximum grant award is $2,000.

Applications will be available beginning November 1st on the City's Web site at www.ocoee.org or at the City Hall reception desk. Completed applications should be mailed or delivered to City Hall, Community Relations, 150 North Lakeshore Drive, Ocoee, Florida, 34761. The deadline to submit applications is November 30.

The goal of the Most Valuable Partnership Matching Grant Program is to improve the quality of life in Ocoee by assisting residents and organizations in making improvements to their neighborhoods or creating programs which benefit citizens.

Applicants may submit projects which beautify neighborhoods, address public safety concerns, or foster cultural, recreational, or educational wants and needs of the neighborhood or organization.

For more information on the City of Ocoee MVP Grant Program, visit www.ocoee.org or call Joy P. Wright at (407) 905-3100.
