his time at the Veterans Affairs Community Living Center and travels to greet troops returning home from Afghanistan. “I love my country and I love giving back to our troops and our veterans,” said Mr. Heinzelman. “The Orlando VA center is a place where America takes care of its military heroes who need our help now. The patients I have the honor and privilege of working with are from every branch of our armed forces and from every war. Being raised by depression-era WW II parents gives me first-hand knowledge of our modern, if not all-time, greatest generation.”

The public is invited to attend the Memorial Day Ceremony.
Refreshments will be served. For more information, please call 407-905-3100.
