New Employee Health Care Center Partnership

OCOEE, FLORIDA – The City of Ocoee and the City of Apopka are pleased to announce that beginning on December 15, the two cities will be partnering their employee health centers. This innovative and groundbreaking move will give city employees free, accessible and convenient medical care in Ocoee and Apopka.

“We are very excited to work with Apopka on this cost-saving joint venture that will give our employees greater flexibility in scheduling their doctor visits,” said City Manager Robert Frank.

Listed are the dates and times that each health center will be in operation.
