The City of Ocoee Police Department is proud to announce the 24th Annual "Ocoee Police versus Teachers" charity basketball game. Proceeds from the game benefit the Ocoee Police Department's "Holiday Toys for Children in Need Toy Drive" and the Ocoee Middle School.

Since 1986 the "Ocoee Police versus Teachers" basketball game has been taking place. A tradition for more than twenty years, the Ocoee students purchase tickets to witness this rivalry game and all monies raised go to the Ocoee Middle School and the Holiday Toys for Needy Children Fund to benefit more than 600 hundred needy children within the City of Ocoee.

This year the game took place on December 17, 2010 at 3:00p.m. in the Ocoee Middle School gymnasium. The game ended with the Ocoee Middle School Teachers winning twenty-five to twenty- three over the officers from the Ocoee Police Department. The sold out game was a huge success and was enjoyed by the players on both teams and by the students watching the game.
